

Afghan refugees and Issues of Protection, Rights, and Justice

Mujib Ahmad Azizi

Researcher in Afghanistan Research and Evaluation Unit (AREU) Kabul Afghanistan

Abstract

This brief article discusses the problems of Afghan refugees in the light of the law on asylum and protection. Focusing on the problems that Afghan refugees and IDPs have faced during the different period of time that they fled from their home country to other countries. At the first stage it will consider the definition of refugees, then will focus on the security situation of Afghanistan natural disaster as reasons that people flee the country. Finally, it discusses the issues and level of refugees, IDPs, and returnees situation and reintegration process with seeking some solutions for the problems of refugees in the light of human rights.

Keywords: Afghanistan, Internal Displaced People, Law of Asylum, Protection, Refugees, UNHCR, War
