

SHORT BIO NOTE

---

Clara Atehortúa Arredondo

( July-September 2015)

She is currently a student of Ph.d in Law Universidad del Rosario. She is lawyer from Universidad de Medellín and magister in politic science from Universidad de Antioquia. She is working about the relationship between cities and IDPs in Colombia in a protracted displacement context. As part of her career she has researched about topics as interurban forced displacement, forced displacement and city, urban conflict, administration of justice and private justice, inter alia. She has published several articles deal problems link with the topics above.